

PRINCIPAL'S NOTES

I certainly hope you enjoyed our concert "Dance through the Decades"; I certainly did; and even the little Prep who lost his tooth in the middle of the class performance did! There has been really positive feedback from many families, and for that we thank you. The concert was the result of hard work on the part of all teachers and students. Thanks also goes to you, the parents who made sure the children had appropriate clothing as a base for those great costumes.

So a big thank you to everyone involved!

End of Year

The final two weeks of school are extremely busy for us; we are putting the final touches on class lists for next year. There will be four new class teachers on deck in 2015; so a few changes for us all. Next Monday, children will go to their new classes – although the new portable rooms will not be ready, children will meet their new teachers and spend some time with them and their classmates for 2015.

The structure has been decided and is as follows:

3 X Prep classes; in Rooms 1, 2 and 3

5 X 1 / 2 classes; in Rooms 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8

(Rooms 5, 6, 7 and 8 will be the new classrooms)

3 X 3 / 4 classes; in the current Rooms 5 & 6 and one upstairs

But will be re-badged as Rooms 9, 10 and 11 and

3 X 5 / 6 classes; in Rooms 12, 13 and 14 (upstairs)

Once again we will have specialist classes in Science, Art, Performing Arts and Physical Education.

More details with teachers names attached will be published next week.

Last Day

The school will have a short day on Friday 19th December. Classes will start for 8.30am – for those who can get here that early. We will not be providing fruit at recess, so your children will only need to bring a snack; as school finishes early, they will have lunch at home.

You are all welcome at our final assembly which will commence at 11.15am

Dismissal is at 12.00!

Building Works

Today was great fun for those who like to watch trucks, cranes and workers. The first of our new portable buildings came onsite; the second will be here tomorrow.

Over the next few weeks, work will be carried out so that the rooms are ready for use in the new year. Exciting times!

Principal

LOST PROPERTY

Unfortunately our Lost Property basket is overflowing!!!

All items will be on display from this afternoon in the corridor outside the Assistant Principals' Office.
